

If you belong to this category, you have to call a CAF with an agreement with ARDISS and then provide them with the documents listed below. The following website lists all the CAFs with an agreement with ARDISS:

<http://www.ardiss.fvg.it/contenuti.php?view=news&id=9518&tipo=evidenza>.

We, the representatives, suggest you to go to the CAF-UIL at via Polonio 5, tel.: 040-638251. Make sure to choose a CAF located in Trieste. As mentioned above, the call will likely be in Italian, ask an Italian friend or one of the representatives for help if necessary.

WARNING: if you belong to this class of students, your possibility of getting the aforementioned discounts depends on the income of your parents!

List of documents needed:

- certification of the family composition;
- certification of yours and your family incomes of two years ago (i.e.: if we are in 2018, you should provide your incomes of the year 2016) even if they were tax-free (i.e.: you should provide your PhD fellowship and eventual collaboration with Universities);
- owned buildings for residential purposes and/or the rent of the last year belonging to any member of your family;
- balance and average stocks of all bank accounts belonging to any member of your family for the last year;

- certification of any disabilities over 66% of any member of your family;
- your fiscal code.

Note that if you present documents which display currencies different from Euro you have to convert them according to the average annual exchange rate (see www.uic.it).
